Bridging Visa holders Eligibility for a Job Seeker ID number (JSID)

The person presenting to you holds a Bridging Visa with full work rights.

According to the Australian Government Job Services Australia Eligibility for Visa Holders Fact Sheet (effective date 02/10/2012), which outlines the eligibility of visa holders for JSA and how to determine this eligibility, (Stream 1 Limited) Eligible visa holders include:

Other visa holders will be eligible for Stream 1 (Limited) services if they have a legal right to work in Australia. These job seekers will be eligible to Directly Register with a JSA provider.

It adds that only “People who do not have a legal right to work in Australia are not eligible for JSA”.

Asylum seekers holding a Bridging Visa a, C or E with full work rights fall under under the ‘other visa holders’ category.

Thank you for granting this ‘customer’ access to Stream 1 (Limited) Services, including a JSID.
